The 2005 Chinese property bubble was a real estate bubble in residential and commercial real estate in China. The New York Times reported that the bubble started to deflate in 2011, while observing increased complaints that members of the middle-class were unable to afford homes in large cities. The deflation of the property bubble is seen as one of the primary causes for China's declining ...

Their disproportionate participation in communism, Marxism, and socialism. Marxism is an exemplar of a universalist ideology in which ethnic and nationalist barriers within the society and indeed between societies are eventually removed in the interests of social harmony and a sense of communal interest.

Commercial publisher initiatives are coming from two major impetuses. First, these materials have intellectual property value that benefits the publisher if the materials remain under the control of the publisher. Secondly, publishers have begun to realize the economic benefits of the reuse of the content.
