7 The Mind War keeps thinking on that thing, it paints a vivid picture. If this process continues, an entire way of thinking is formed. One reason the enemy goes after the mind so strongly is that he understands it is the center of creativity. You have heard it said that a picture is worth a thousand words.

The Mind War

These strange scenarios may seem to come to us straight from science fiction, but both were in fact bold and attention-getting slogans to encourage support for British involvement in the Great War. And bizarre propaganda posters are by no means the only curious or confusing memorabilia from the war.
