Overall The Third Man was one of the greatest Film Noir films ever produced. The feelings and emotions it conveys are really deep and meaningful. The techniques used in the certain scenes were typical of the Film Noir period, and most are still used in the modern day film industry.

The Third Man, Film Noir and German Expressionism.

The Third Man also represents "along with Casablanca, in my opinion" a kind of movie that seemed particularly inspired by the events of WWII and the war's nihilistic underpinnings.
